The following are a set of questions which aim to gather feedback from the employer, following your participation in the Gaming Malta Student Placement Programme.

This will enable Gaming Malta to further improve the programme based on the feedback obtained.

Note: If you employed more than one student through this programme, there is no need to complete a separate form for each student. However, please reply to questions relating to students in a clear manner and providing a reply for each student.

1. Did you have a role and a plan prepared for the student(s)? What tasks did they perform?
